Why Berkley Luxury Group

Expanding on our rich history and unique competitive knowledge, Berkley Luxury Group is on an exciting journey to re-imagine our business. With a broad set of innovative capabilities and a focus on exceptional, localized service to our partners nationwide, we offer excellent products, a flexible underwriting approach, exceptional claims service, and a field-based operating model, positioning us as the provider of choice for premier real estate and hospitality agents and customers alike.

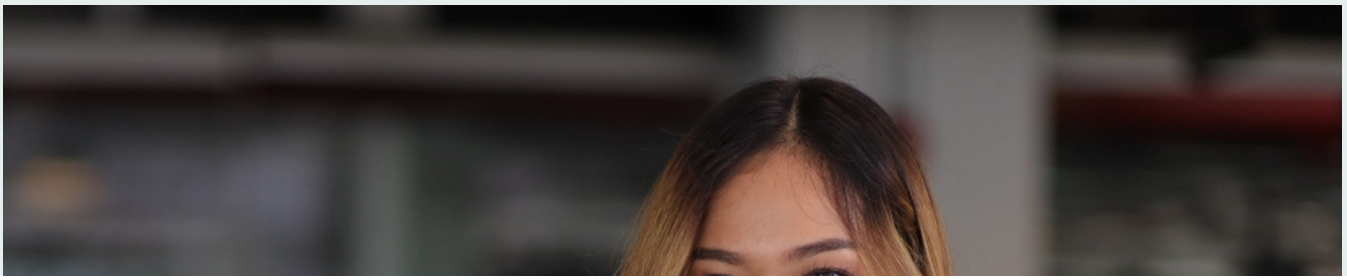

Specialization & Underwriting Expertise

- Our leadership team averages 30+ years of experience in the premium real estate and habitational markets.
- Being one of the few providers in the market that offers a creative set of both admitted and non-admitted products within our specialized market segment, our industry-specific enhancements provide complete, comprehensive coverage solutions.
- We provide insurance for approximately $50B of property “values”, with over 70% of our business in luxury condos, co-ops, and apartments.
- Maintaining specialization in the premium real estate and habitational markets since 1986, we insure over 700 fine dining restaurants, including 20% of award-winning dining establishments, many of which are Michelin-starred and featured by The New York Times.
